DEDICATION

We, the senior class of nineteen hundred and fifty-five, dedicate this book to in appreciation of all the help he has given us in the years he has been here. And also for the many good basketball and football teams he has produced.

We sincerely believe that Mr. Hirst will continue to be as helpful and cheerful no matter where he may go.

To Mr. Hirst we say good luck and many years of happiness.

DEDICATION

We, the people of this nation, do dedicate this day to the memory of those who have given their lives for the freedom of this country.

THEY HAVE

in sacrifice of all they have given to us in the years of our birth. And also for the many good deeds that they have done for our country.

We know of them that they will continue to be as helpful and cheerful as before when we are free.

In the time of our great need and every hour of happiness.

DEDICATION

John O. Hirst

HISTORY OF CLASS OF '55

"I Regained My Freedom With a Sigh."

On that first day of school in September of '42 there were fifty-two shining little faces in the first grade. We were divided into two separate classes under Mrs. Hansen and Mrs. Crowley. We put on a circus for our parents and friends in the second and third grades. We were stars already.....we thought.

When we were in second grade we were all together again because the number had dwindled to thirty-six. Miss Ischi was our teacher. In the back of the room we had a play grocery store where we learned money changing which we were to use so often in a few years.

Miss Thomas taught us in third grade. It was this year that we learned to write instead of printing. In fourth grade Miss Graves was responsible for our further education. She helped us with our Tea for our Mothers. There was a program of local talent (we were continuing our work started in first grade) and refreshments.

At Christmas time during our fifth year of school we were in an operetta with students from other classes. Mrs. Ehredt was our teacher.

In sixth grade we entertained the fifth grade with our production of "How Boots Befooled the King." Mrs. Harsen, our teacher, directed us.

Mrs. Keene started preparing us for high school during our first year of Junior High. We were really grown up now; we had our first school party in the evening.

Mrs. Morrison was our last teacher downstairs. On May 28, '51 our class of thirty-eight members graduated into High School.

As Freshmen we numbered forty-two; we were the first class of that size to attend H. H. S.

The past four years are so full of events I could fill a book. We spent much time and effort selling magazines, putting on dances, programs and plays to make money to go to Washington D. C. in our Senior year. We will also go to New York City and Niagra Falls on our trip. Mr. Hires has been our class advisor all through high school and will accompany us on our trip. He also directed our Sophomore Comedy Hour Program, Senior Class Play, and Senior Comedy Hour Program.

Our Senior play was "Our Town," a modern play. Mr. Hockenson directed "Ramshackle Inn," our Junior Class Play.

The Prom we sponsored in our Junior year was one of the prettiest in the memories of many students and teachers. The theme was "Moonlight and Roses".

We are also proud of our athletes and beauties. The Homecoming Queen of '55 was a member of our class, Kay Curtis. Phyllis Boldt and Jean Petitgoue have represented our class as attendants in previous years.

We've had a lot of fun together and even though we were a large class we've had splendid cooperation. So with all the pleasant memories of our twelve years together we part, each to go his own way in the great wide future that lies ahead.

HISTORY OF CLASS OF '22

"I Regained My Freedom With a Sigh."

On the first day of school in September of '22 there were fifty-two living kids in the first grade. We were divided into two separate classes under Mrs. Hansen and Mrs. Crowder. The boys in the first grade and friends in the second and third grades. We were then divided into two groups.

When we were in second grade we were all together again because the new teacher had decided to divide the class into two sections in the back of the room. We had a play grocery store where we learned money changing which we were to use as often as a few years.

Mrs. Thomas taught us in third grade. It was the last year that we learned to write instead of printing. In fourth grade Miss Groves was responsible for our further education. She helped us with our Latin for our Mother. There was a program of local talent we were continuing our work started in first grade and retirement.

At Christmas time during our fifth year of school we were in an assembly with students from other classes. Mrs. Smith was our teacher.

In sixth grade we continued the fifth grade with our production of "How Books Came to the King." Mrs. Hansen, our teacher, directed it.

Mrs. Hansen started preparing us for high school during our fifth year of Junior High. We were really given up now; we had our first school party in the evening.

Mrs. Morrison was our last teacher downtown. On May 28, '27 our class of thirty-eight members graduated into High School.

As freshmen we numbered forty-two; we were the last class of that size to attend H. H. S.

The past four years are full of events I could fill a book. We spent much time and effort in making magazines, putting on dances, programs and plays to make money to go to Washington D. C. in our Junior year. We will also go to New York City and Chicago for our trip. Mr. Hines has been our class advisor all through high school and will accompany us on our trip. He also directed our Sophomore Comedy Hour Program, Senior Comedy Hour, and Senior Comedy Hour Program.

Our senior play was "Our Town," a modern play. Mr. Hokenson directed "Hamlet" and "The Merchant of Venice."

The first we presented in our Junior year was one of the greatest in the history of our school and teachers. The theme was "Moonlight and Kisses."

We are also proud of our athletes and cheerleaders. The Homecoming Queen of '22 was a member of our class. Miss Anna, Phyllis, Betty and Jean, all of whom were in the class as members in previous years.

There had a lot of fun together and even though we were a large class we had enjoyed cooperation. We will all be pleasant members of our future years together as we go on our own way in the great wide world that lies ahead.

CLASSES

"WE LOOK BEFORE AND AFTER."

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

"WHEN I REMEMBER ALL"

The junior class of 1954 and 1955 started out with twenty-four members. The class officers are: President, Eugene Ferguson; Vice-President, Carolyn Haug; Secretary-Treasurer, Carolyn McKinley; Student Council Member, Carole Crawford; and Mr. James Walsh was chosen as our Class Advisor.

Our class is very proud of Eugene, Philip, Jerry, Bob, Martin and Ronnie who were out for basketball; and Eugene, Martin, Philip, Wayne, Leo and Frank who were out for football.

Carolyn McKinley and Carolyn Haug were chosen cheerleaders and also attendants to the queen at Homecoming. We had a lot of fun getting ready for Homecoming. The float that we entered got second prize.

We also enjoyed getting ready for and giving our class play, "The Big Blow-Up". It turned out to be a big success.

We are looking forward to the Prom which will be on May 20, 1955. The theme will be "Indian Love Call."

The Junior class of '56 wishes the seniors much success and happiness in their future years.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

"FOND MEMORY BRINGS THE LIGHT"

We, the sophomore class, entered H. H. S with twenty-eight members. Our class officers were: President, Denny McCormick; Vice-President, Lynn Zuber; Secretary-Treasurer, Judy Henschel; and Student Council Member, Judy Reed.

New students this year were Sue Schneider, Norman Martinelli, and Bill McColley, who was with us for only a short time. We also lost Kenneth Jestice and Cyril Larson.

In October we entered our float in the homecoming parade and were very happy to be awarded first prize. In December we presented our play "Elmer" which was given as an assembly program.

Judy Reed was elected cheerleader. We had seven boys out for basketball and five boys out for football.

Our money making project this year was a chili supper held February first. It was very profitable.

The sophomore class wishes the seniors of "55" health, happiness, and success.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

"AND GIVE US MANNERS, VIRTUE, FREEDOM, POWER"

There are twenty nine in the freshman class. The class officers are: President, Donna Speer; Vice President, Lynn Fleming; Secretary-Treasurer, Jeane Schuster; Student Council, Chuck Straight; Class Advisor, Mr. Fassel.

This year we have had a dance and we entered a float in the homecoming parade. Jeane Schuster and June Webster were our candidates for homecoming queen. Jeane Schuster is one of the high school cheerleaders. Six freshman boys went out for football and four for basketball.

The freshman class wishes the seniors good luck.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The music instructors of the Hanover Schools are Mrs. Olive Speer, who teaches vocal, and Mr. Jack Krambeck, who teaches band.

Mrs. Speer graduated from the University of Minnesota. She also attended Northwestern University and McPhail Music School. She received her B. A. degree with a major in voice and a B. S. with a major in Public School music from the University of Minnesota. Mrs. Speer has taught private lessons in voice and piano for a number of years, directed church choirs and is church organist. This is her sixth year of school music teaching. She taught five years in Minnesota, and this is her first year of teaching at Hanover.

Mr. Krambeck graduated from the University of Dubuque. He has studied with Himie Voxman of the University of Iowa on the clarinet, Dr. Tom Collins of the University of Miami, Florida. He also studied four years with Ferdinard Del Negro, member of the Philadelphia Orchestra on Bassoon.

The B Band, which is for the beginners, has 32 members, and practices every Friday morning at 9:00.

The Pep Band played for all home basketball games and the A Band played for the home football games.

There are 43 members in the A Band. They practice every Monday, Wednesday and Friday. The officers are: President, Jo Anne Mason; Vice-President, Charlene Mitchell; and Librarian, Phyllis Mielke.

Class Lessons are offered to students who are in the fourth grade or above.

There are forty six girls in the High School Girls Chorus and eighteen members in the Mixed Chorus. The Girls Chorus practices every Tuesday and Thursday, and the Mixed Chorus practices every other Thursday.

This year, as in the past, many students performed at the music contest which was held at Erie, March 12. This year there were six vocal solos, five instrumental solos, and six ensembles entered. The vocal solos were: Phyllis Boldt, Low Voice; Jean Harkness and Charlene Mitchell, High Voice; Phyllis Mielke, Medium Voice; Eugene Fergeson, Boys Medium Voice; Phillip Mitchell, Low Voice. Instrumental solos were: Jean Schuster, Bass Clarinet; Richard Speer, French Horn; Phillip Mitchell, Drum; Kay Winter and Jerry Callahan, Cornet.

Those in the ensembles were: Girls sextette, Jean Harkness and Charlene Mitchell, Sopranos; Phyllis Mielke and Jean Schuster, Second Sopranos; Phyllis Boldt and Sue Sullivan, Altos. Mixed Octet were: Donna Speer and Dolores Wescott, Sopranos; Judy Henschell and Shirley Cook, Altos; Richard Speer and Rodney Andrews, Tenors; Eugene Fergeson and Phillip Mitchell, Bass.

The Band Booster's Club was organized in 1950.

This year the organization purchased braids for the band uniforms and presented the school with a band flag.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY.....

"OUR TOWN"

by Thornton Wilder

The three acts of this play show life in an average American town from 1901-1913, emphasizing the daily life, love and marriage and death. The main characters are George Gibbs and Emily Webb and their families. Played on a stage where shifts of scenery are made only in the audience's imagination, the story is able to show all phases of American life from the breakfast table to the graveyard.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY.....

"THE BIG BLOWUP"

This is a play in which the leading characters are four suitcases, which look so much alike that when their owners get them mixed, the result is not only uproariously funny, but is highly exciting because in one of the suitcases is a time bomb that will blow any one who tries to open it to smithereens, and in another is a valuable pearl necklace.

Terry, a young detective, is on the trail of a gangster named Mugsy Morris. Terry knows that Mugsy's sister is supposed to meet him in a small town hotel but he doesn't know what she looks like so consequently he gets her mixed up with two other lodgers named Sandra Field and Margot Richards.

Many people try to open the suitcase not knowing to whom it belongs and the suspense is terrific. It all ends happily, however, but not before many complications have piled up that embroil every guest in the hotel.

Ellen Parker	Kay Markwell	Melinda	Carolyn McKinley
Beans Parker	Frank Wurster	Sandra Field	Ethel McLees
Katie Lee	Carolyn Haug	Douglas Blake	Ron Noton
Terry King	Eugene Ferguson	Margot Richards	Rosalie Bearsley
Mugsy Morris	Philip Mitchell	Mr. Field	Leo Hathaway
Cora Johnson	Carole Crawford	Mrs. Field	Norma Delle Thompson
